OTHER EVENTS

78 Derngate Museum in Northampton: <http://www.78derngate.org.uk/page3/index.html>

Entrance to our Visitor Centre - with shop, galleries and restaurant is free of charge. Two textile/art exhibitions on now.

Mary Hart - Have Needle - Will Travel

Mary Hart is a textile artist of 25 years standing; with an explorative, experimental and intuitive style. New media and processes fuel her work which shows a wide range of textual techniques. A country girl at heart, she turned to textile art as a means of expressing the landscapes and seasons, ever-changing around her on the farm.

Mary creates her own unique pieces using varied techniques, including dyeing fabrics and threads to achieve her own selected colours.

This exhibition will showcase Mary's inspiration for new creations from the diverse textures, techniques and textiles she encounters on her travels.

9th July - 25th September 2016

Made in Oxfordshire

A beautiful exhibition from members of Oxfordshire Craft Guild.

This exhibition will feature a large range of traditional crafts and contemporary design in ceramics, glass, jewellery, paper, textiles and wood. Unique and unusual works, available for purchase, from some of the country's finest makers.

Julia Snowdin – Through New Eyes

13 August - 9 October

Installation artist Julia Snowdin had been busy creating the knitted spectacle which dominates this show. The giant column of knitted strips celebrates creativity and through the exhibition Julia takes a new approach to the traditional practice of knitting. Through New Eyes uses the idea of creating from thoughts and feelings, and Julia believes that by following your feelings everyone can create expressive pieces of work. There will be artwork for sale in this show.

JEWELLERY

For knitted wire jewellery, the best place to start is with Erica Thomson, <http://www.ericaco.uk/index.htm>, and you can see a video of her demonstrating knitting with wire on her site.

And just look at this designer knitted jewellery <http://www.amylawrencedesigns.co.uk/>
